Sir, Subject - Exempting soldiers residing in Jalahalli Camp from the operation of the tax on bicycles

With reference to your letter No R F 157-42/Judl dated 6th May 1942, on the above subject, I am directed to state that vehicle tax is levied by the Bangalore City Municipal Council only on vehicles kept for use within the City Municipal limits and that therefore the question of levying tax on the cycles used by the soldiers living in Jalahalli Camp does not arise Bicycles registered in the Civil and Military Station and exempted from wheel tax, are given discs and can be ridden free in the City also under the reciprocity arrangement

In regard to the levy of tolls on such vehicles, provision has been made in the rules and byelaws of the Bangalore Cit Municipality to exempt the vehicles which are the property of Government, or used for the passage of military officers on duty or the conveyance of any property or person in their custody from paying tolls on passing the toll gates If soldiers who enter the City limits on their bicycle are considered as on duty or have free discs given to them from the C & M Station Municipal Commission, they can enter the City limits without payment of any toll.
